“ I worked with Cynthia when she was becoming an Allstate agent in Orlando. We became friends and were in touch occasionally, but lost touch, I am sorry to say. She was an awesome human being and I will miss her dearly. I had just texted her "Happy New Year" days before her death, and received a response back. God has just received an angel! I was out of town at the time of her funeral and could not give my condolences to the family.. God Bless you all - you are in my prayers!

“ I met this wonderful lady for the first time earlier this year at the Pentecostal Theological Seminary when I helped her purchase textbooks from Amazon.com. It was as though we had been friends for years and she made me laugh because she commented how she did not shop online, while I shop online all the time. I thought she was from another planet! LOL. Imagine how shocked and saddened I was to hear of her death. Felt like the breath was sucked out of me. I know this is such a loss to her family, friends, and her neighborhood. She is in the presence of the Lord and thus I look forward to seeing her again at her new address. My prayers continue for her family.

“ To the family of Cynthia, God blessed us and gave Cynthia to us for a short time. We enjoyed her on this side of life but we know that this is nothing compared to the joys we will have when we get together again. She touched so many lives and we have been enriched through her and by her. We thank God for her life. God bless and keep you is my prayer.

“ To the McGee family, my heart aches for the earthly temporary separation between Cynthia and us but we know that our togetherness will be again in that great day of reunion. To God be the glory for He alone is able to sustain us in this our time of grief.
