

Mrs. Daisy Bell Busby

July 26, 1923 - March 20, 2018

Daisy Bell Lewis Busby was born July 26, 1923 in Hampton, South Carolina, the daughter of Fred Lewis and Haddie Fields Lewis.

She was united in marriage to William Mozell Busby. To this union eight children were born.

Daisy worked on the farm at an early age, after leaving grade school to help her parents take care of the family. In her later career she worked with her husband in the Foliage Industry as a horticulturist. Which to many was described as “heaven’s floral garden on earth”, working with numerous types of plants. One of her favorites was blooming flowers. She enjoyed cooking and watching others feast on her meals. She was well known for her famous macaroni and cheese.

Daisy was preceded in death by her husband, William Mozell Busby, two children, William M. Busby, Jr. and Jeanette Busby Woody, father, Fred Lewis and mother Haddie Fields Lewis, three brothers and three sisters.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her children: Mattie White (Calvin), Orlando, Florida, Pastor Willie Busby (Lena), Apopka, Florida, Freddie Busby (Mary), Apopka, Florida, Perry Busby (Carolyn), Valdosta, Georgia, Libbie (Bishop Arthur) Florence, Eustis, Florida, Marion (Holmes) Johnson, Orlando, Florida; nineteen plus grandchildren; numerous great grandchildren; up to six generations; oldest niece Sadie K. Reed, Hardeeville, South Carolina; one brother-in-law, LH Busby (Jannie), Lena, South Carolina; four sisters-in-law, Clara Gonzalez, Varnville, South Carolina, Earline Brantley, (Reverend Coy) Furman, South Carolina, Vernice Hamlin, Virginia, Ingram Busby, Lena, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
