

David Amen Florence

May 3, 1994 - August 28, 2022

On May 3rd 1994, David Amen Florence (by birthright Amen Lee Kitchens) was born in Atlanta, Georgia to Charlene Yvette Kitchens and Wilbert Jorge Bailey. David was later raised by Phyllis Pearson and Eric Charles Florence in 1999, and at that time he was renamed to David Amen Florence.

David went to Maynard Evans High School. He was making waves on the football team while he attended. He later obtained his high school diploma. No matter what, David always put his best foot forward.

David didn't have to try hard to be funny, but he was definitely that. David's light intentions were always pure. Being around him was uplifting and he had the ability to transform dark moments into bursts of laughter. He would brighten anyone's day when he had the chance. David was a protector of the vulnerable. He made a major impact on his community and at the First United Methodist Church of Sanford, Florida. David was also a hard worker, he was as a chef at Christos in Sanford, Florida.

David was preceded in death by his mother: Charlene Yvette Kitchens; father, Wilbert Jorge Bailey; mother, Phyllis Florence; and brother, Wilbert Bailey, Jr.

David departed from his earthly body on August 28, 2022. He leaves to cherish his most precious and loving memories to his baby, Crash (his dog); father, Eric Florence of Orlando, Florida; sisters: Chassity Florence of Apopka, Florida, Tiffany Florence of Winter Haven, Florida, Ashley Florence of Ocala, Florida, and Nicole Bailey of Canada, and Kyra Florence of Haines City, Florida; brothers: Christopher Marbley of Georgia and Tony Pearson of Apopka, Florida; Grandmother, Evelyn Bailey; nieces: Alia Florence, Naliyah Ruffin, Isabella Florence, Sashaunn Goodridge, and Maya Goodridge, and Rachel Pearson and Niyla Lankford; nephews: Amari Ruffin and Kheng Bailey Campbell, and Micah Goodridge. He also leaves a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends from the loving communities of Sanford and Orlando.
