

Mr. David W. Washington

April 26, 1947 - March 14, 2017

David Washington was born April 26, 1947 in Bolingbroke, Georgia to David W. Washington and Fannie Mae Washington.

David retired from Kings III of America as a technician. He was a true renaissance man. A renaissance man has many talents and knowledge.

David had the knowledge of God and our Lord Jesus Christ. He was known as "Mr. Fit It". He was a practical man. He could figure out how to make things in life work. His mind was analytical. But, his heart was full of love, compassion and joy! David had a unique talent that manifested God's love. He made each person he loved feel that they were the most important thing. His spirit of joy and laughter was comforting to all. Even when he was hurting, he amazingly helped others feel better. Each of his four children felt his strong love. Each had a different but equally special connection. "My Daddy" is how each child often referred to him. Whether your time was long or short, you always felt important. David was a man of action, not afraid to do for others. He lived by Hebrews 13:16 . . ."And do not forget to do good and share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased."

David was . . .

D - Diligent

A - Active

V - Vigilant

I - Indisputably

D - Daddy

David was preceded in death by his mother Fannie Mae Washington, father, David W. Washington, sister, Marie Binion, brothers, George Washington and James Washington.

David leaves to cherish precious memories to his wife, Carol of Apopka, Florida; children, Chandra P. Williams (Darrell), of Macon, Georgia, David Lee Washington of Hawaii and Devin P. Washington of Hawaii and Daren Washington of Orlando, Florida; brothers, Larry Washington of Miami, Florida and Henry Howard of New Jersey; grandchildren, Shaun Patrick Williams of Macon, Georgia, Malaika Washington of Hawaii, Cameron Washington of Orlando, Florida and Jordyn Washington of Orlando, Florida; a host of sisters and brothers in- law; nieces and nephews cousins; other relatives and friends.
