

Deborah Chambers

October 29, 1952 - August 13, 2018

Deborah was born and raised in Arcadia, Florida to Cleo P. Solomon and Frank Davis Jr., she's married to Lamar Chambers of Albion, New York; she moved to Orlando, on April 7, 1982 with her two daughters, where she resided until her demise on August 13, 2018 when God call her home to rest with Him. She was a Certified Nursing Assistance (CNA), for over 30 years until she became ill and was unable to continue working, but she still had that passion for caring for others whether young or old. Everyone that knew Deborah knew she was a very jovial person, if ever you needed a laugh it was always guaranteed that she'd have you in tears by the end of your conversation; there was never a dull moment when she was in the room. She was baptized into the Church of Christ at an early age, her last church home was the Westmoreland Ave. Church of Christ.

Deborah is preceded in death by her father the late: Frank Davis Jr. her mother and stepfather the late: Cleo P. Smith and Albert Smith, her brother-in-law Johnny Salph, and her niece Veora Smith.

She leaves behind to cherish her love: her two daughters; Fayondria and Katina, seven grandchildren: DeShannon, Victorielle (Tristan), DeShadrian, Jatoya, Marquise, Daysja and Kayden, nine great grandchildren: Benjamin, Bentley, Taylor, Jordan, Jayda, Roger III, Ja'nya, Trista and Royalty.

She also leaves to cherish her love her siblings: James, Frankye, Ollie Mae, Linda (Calvin), Cleo, Marvin, David, Shelia, Charlie (Rochelle), Dionna and one step brother Johnny, one uncle Eugene (Verlene) Hickson and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
