

Deborah Anita King Deliford

February 9, 1961 - November 9, 2025

Deborah Anita King Deliford was born February 9, 1961, in Miami Gardens, Florida, as the third child to Henry C. King and Rose M . King. She attended and graduated from Carol City High School. She was born and raised in Miami, and that is where she met and married Anderson Deliford. Four children were born to their union.

Deborah was a beautiful and spiritual woman of God and an incredible mother, sister, grandmother, aunt, and cousin. She answered the call of God for her life and went on to be a devout Reverend in her journey of faith.

She will always be remembered for her bright smile, outgoing personality, and her ability to stay in style, always looking good and "dressed to impress". She will be deeply missed by all who got a chance to know her beautiful soul and will never be forgotten...

She was preceded in death by her father, Henry C. King, and mother, Rose M . King.

her daughter-in-law, Dazia Sharky; grandsons: Tristan Deliford and Tariq Deliford; granddaughters: Amauri Sharky, Amiyah Sharky, and Alaiyah Deliford. She will also live on in the hearts of a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
