

Debra Kay Jenkins

September 3, 1962 - February 13, 2020

Debra Kay Jenkins-Currie was born September 3, 1962 to Melvin Jenkins and Martha Allen Jenkins in Kissimmee, Florida. She was the 9th child of 12 children (eight girls and four boys). Debra attended public school in Osceola County. After school she moved to Lawtey, Florida to help take care of her grandmother. Later she returned to Kissimmee, Florida and started her own family. She was blessed with five children.

She received Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at a young age at St. James AME Zion under the leadership of the late Reverend Curry. Later she moved her membership to Harvest Time Ministry and Worship Center under the leadership of her brother, Reverend Melvin L. Jenkins, Jr. Debra later met her loving husband Hubert Currie they fell in love and was united as one in 2007. They shared their life together and were happy until God called her home.

Debra was so loving and caring, she was a joy to be around. She always put others before herself. Everywhere she went she had a smile on her face and someone knew her. She was the most sweetest, loving, humble woman you could ever meet. She always made sure everyone around her was happy.

Debra began her employment at Winfield Inn in the late 90's. She then proceeded to work for the Palms at Park Place for sixteen years; until she was called home to be with mother, father and sister.

On Thursday, February 13, 2020, God sent His angels down to carry his loving child Debra home to His Heavenly Kingdom. Her departure is a deep and very sad loss to her kids, family and friends. She will truly be missed by them all.

Debra was preceded in death by her loving parents, Melvin and Martha Jenkins, along with one of her older sister, Linda Y. Smith as well as a host of aunts, uncles and a sister-in-law.
