

Dennis Tomar

October 7, 1929 - August 13, 2024

Dennis Tomar, affectionately known as “Johnny Mac” was born on October 7, 1929 on the island of Tortola in the British Virgin Islands to parents, Anthony Teatric Stoutt and Rachel Thomas. He attended primary and secondary school in the British Virgin Islands.

After finishing school, Dennis met and married his first wife with whom he would produce his two daughters. After getting married, he migrated to St. Thomas where he would become a successful entrepreneur owning and operating a tour business as well as managing several rental properties in the Virgin Islands. He was also a member of the Virgin Islands Taxi Association.

Dennis had a deep relationship with his Heavenly Father. In his middle years, Dennis became a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

For many years, Dennis would travel annually to Apopka, Florida to spend at least two months with his family. In 2015, he relocated to the Apopka area where he remained a permanent resident until his passing.

On August 13, 2024 he was called home to be with his Heavenly Father after his battle with cancer.

He was preceded in death by his Father, Anthony T. Stoutt; Mother, Rachel Thomas; Brother, James George; and Sisters: Virgie Fahie and Francess Jennings.

Left to cherish his precious memories are his loving Daughters: Elliece Tomar-Warren (Jimmy) of Apopka, Florida and Mariece Tomar-Alexander (Dsrie) of Orlando, Florida; Brother, Issac Stoutt of Tortola, British Virgin Islands; 5 Grandchildren: Levar, Lashawna, Cymone, Ashley, and Patrice; 3 Great Grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends
