

Denzil A. Robert

February 12, 1952 - October 26, 2023

Denzil A. Roberts was born on February 12, 1952, in the small town of Willowsfield in St. Thomas, Jamaica, to parents, Johnathan and Julien Roberts. He was a child filled with an innate curiosity and boundless energy. Denzil's early years in Jamaica were a testament of his sense of adventure, and they laid the foundation for the man we all came to know.

As he grew older, Denzil's journey led him to a path of skill and craftsmanship. He discovered his passion for tailoring, and with dedication and hard work, he honed his skills to become one of the best tailors in his community. His creations were not just pieces of clothing; he had a unique ability to turn fabric into a canvas of beauty. Denzil also gave back to the people in his community by sharing his skill of tailoring with young men who desired to learn the trade.

In 1985, Denzil took the bold step of moving to Orlando, Florida, where he would ultimately meet and marry Linda, affectionately known as Miss Lyn or Aunty Lyn. Their story began in 1986, and together they built a life filled with laughter, and countless cherished moments. Denzil and Linda's union resulted in the birth of their son, Ezil. Together they blended their family as they both had children from previous relationships.

Denzil was a proud father, leaving an enduring legacy of strength, wisdom, and the importance of family bonds.

Throughout his life, Denzil was known as a good friend to many and a pillar of support in times of need. When he was not at work in the construction industry, he spent his free time playing dominoes, cooking, and listening to music with his friends.

As we bid farewell to Denzil, let us not dwell on the sorrow of his passing but instead celebrate the incredible journey of a man who touched the lives of many. His legacy will live on through the love he shared, and the memories that we will forever hold close to our hearts.
