

Deric Eugene Lawson

August 22, 1967 - August 2, 2023

Deric Eugene Lawson was born on August 22, 1967, to Dorothy Thomas and Johnny Lawson. Deric was raised in Orlando, Florida and educated in the Orange County Schools. Deric made his career in restaurants as a chef, construction, and even a little stand-up comedy. Slick, Black Boy, Stolen Nova, and THE Best Beat Maker in Orlando, Florida, was Deric's claim to fame. As an awesome father and husband, Deric loved life, his children, music, and making people laugh. In life, Deric was fueled by his passion for creating music for the masses and the desire to ensure there was always room to have good fun.

Deric was baptized in Jesus' name and saved as a young person in The Apostolic Church of Jesus, Inc. where he continued his ministry in laughter.

Deric was preceded in death by his mother, Dorothy Jean Thomas in November of 2010, his father, Johnny Lawson, in 2012 and his brother, Eddie Lawson in 2009.

Deric will be truly missed by everyone who knew him. His legacy of life, love, and laughter will live on forever through his wife, Sarina (Rena); his four children, Baudric, Erica, Darius, and NyZaiah Caleb; his siblings, Bruce Johnson, Byron Lawson, Rosalind Lawson and Robert Glen (Maryiotti); his uncle, Kenney Johnson (Bobbie), his aunts; Barbara McNealy, Joyce Ann

Johnson, Jacquelyn Johnson; a host of other relatives and special friends.
