

Diane A. Graham

August 10, 1961 - August 22, 2025

Diane A. Graham was born on August 10, 1960, in Boston, Massachusetts, to George Miller and Luberta Brunner. During her early years, she was raised in the neighborhood of Dorchester, located in Boston. As a preteen around the age of twelve, she relocated to Kissimmee, Florida, with her mother and siblings.

Diane attended the Osceola County Public Schools. As a young adult, she made Orlando, Florida, her forever home and the place where she would raise a family of her own.

Diane loved life, and she equally loved her family. To her, family was everything, and spending quality time was her love language.

She was the glue that held the family together. She knew everyone's birthday and was always the first to wish them a happy birthday, celebrating every family member and making sure they knew she loved them.

In her past time, she enjoyed listening to her music, gospel music, and cooking delicious meals simply for her family and friends to enjoy. She was big on family and often used her cooking skills to bring everyone together to enjoy one another's presence and family time.

Diane was a very loving person who was full of life. She was generous beyond measure, oftentimes going without so that others could have. She considered the needs and welfare of others above her own, as her generosity knew no bounds.

Diane A. Graham was preceded in death by her mother, Luberta Brunner; brother, Curtis Desmond; sisters, Wanda Brunner and Buffy Thomas; and daughter Leilani Graham.

Left to cherish her memory are her loving children: sons, Javarus Graham and Sharief Newsome, both of Orlando, Florida; daughters, Yontae Edwards and Lorraine Carswell, both of Orlando, Florida; father, George Miller of Center Hill, Florida; brothers: Kevin Brunner of Gainesville, Florida, Peter Daniels of Kissimmee, Florida, and Danny Brunner of Atlanta, Georgia, sister, Robin Brunner of Gainesville, Florida; 1 grandchildren, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.

"Your Life was a blessing,
Your memory a treasure
You are loved beyond words,
And deeply missed beyond measure.
