

Dilbert Adam Morris

March 27, 1947 - February 11, 2020

The Passing of a Legend

Dilbert Adam Morris was born to the union of the late David and Corine Grier Morris on March 27, 1947 in Dawson, Ga {Terrell County}.

In the early years, within months after his birth, his parents in search of lucrative employment and a back yard for his children, moved to Orlando, FL. They would eventually settle in Winter Park.

Dilbert was nurtured in a Christian home and was expected to attend Sunday School every Sunday. He learned from his mother how to pray. Prayer is what it took many nights, while waiting for his dad to return home from blasting mines for gravel to make concrete.

Growing up the humble way, Dilbert proved to the neighbors that he was a “well mannered young man” in the Carver Street village and among his peers. He was always respectful, strong, and never gave anyone any cause for trouble. Being the only boy, Dilbert was always the protector of his four sisters. “He didn’t play the radio” when it came to his family. A trait that followed him his entire life.

Dilbert was educated in the Orange County Public School System. He was a proud student of the graduating class of 1967. He starred on the Hungerford High School football team and led the mighty “Bobcats” to many victories across the state.

In the spring of 1963, Dilbert met a young lady by the name of Rose Marie Jones. Together they developed a friendship, in later years they transition to courtship and on March 6, 1973 Dilbert decided he wanted a kindred-ship with the love of his life, they united in Holy matrimony and together they shared over 50 memorable years together.

He was employed by Inland Containers, Bendix Corporation, the prime contractor that provided technical and launch support services for numerous programs of NASA at Cape Canaveral, Florida. Dilbert retired after a successful career of 30 years in automotive sales from Bill Ray Nissan. He was named Employee of the Year and Top Seller when he won the Million Dollar Round Table for selling over $1,000,000 worth of Nissan products. Looking back, it is clear that he adopted his father’s work ethic.

After retirement, Dilbert and Rose strengthen their bond of love and dedication to each other, working hand-in-hand with The Apopka Progressive Seniors, traveling and coordinating Social Events. He served as chairman of the Prom Committee until his demise. Dilbert loved to have a good time; and, a good time it was with him around.

Anyone who knew Dilbert knew that he was a “Gentle Giant”. The most loving husband and father a family could ask for. He was determined to provide for his family and give them the life he felt they deserved. He was unendingly proud of them and always tried his best to support them, their goals and their values for the future. He enjoyed spoiling his grandchildren as much as possible. Whether sick or well, good days or Bad, he always looked forward to “Pop-Pop” Wednesday.

His final days were spent surrounded by family and friends that he had touched in some small way throughout his very memorable life. On Tuesday, February 11, our beloved Dilbert transitioned to Perfect Peace.

He is preceded in death by his Loving daughter, LaToya Doletha; his parents: David and Corine; and his sisters, Gloria Zanders-Pitts, and Marilyn Morris.

Those left to cherish his memories: His Loving and Dedicated wife of 47 years Rose; his sons: Kelvin (Tiffany), Sidney (Kelsey); "Grand-Da" Children: John T. (Avril) and Amaya Z.; Two Sisters: Gwendolyn Morris and Cynthia Holt; Grandchildren: Kelvin Jr. (Adona), Tazayawan (Amina), Dominique, Dazzie (Fidline), Delvin, Amarion, Anayzia, Mia, Marcus, Amel; Great Grands: Elijah, Micah, Kyli Rose, Kennedy, Kelvin III, Kairo, D.J. and Zani; One Aunt: Margaree Orr Raiford; A devoted and loving nephew: G. Greg Morris; Devoted nieces: April Sweptson and Vickie Windham; God-children: Min. Allison M. Smith {Walter) and Pastor Timothy L. Ford (Cassandra); Four Brothers-in-Love: Ronald Jones, Hardy Jones, Arthur Sweptson and Dwight Jones; Six Sisters-in-Love: Victoria Sweptson, Darling Jones, Doris Jones, Sheryl Dillard, Victoria Chance and Barbara Lane. A host of other relatives and devoted friends.

Dilbert Morris was a Cousin on both of my parents side of the family. He was a very caring and loving man. He loved his wife, Rose, and his children, grands, siblings and his extended family of relatives and dear friends.

Truly, he is going to be missed! I always looked forward to seeing him and Rose and other family members at our family reunions. I send my sincere condolences to Rose and the family. May God comfort and console each one of you at this very difficult hour.
