Donald was a simple man who loved his family. He had a big heart that made his children and grandchildren feel uniquely special. His military background was one of his most talked-about life accomplishments. He served over 5 years in 2 branches: Army to Air Force. Donald exited with an honorable discharge, including a number of honorable achievement awards.

After his discharge, he returned to the workforce. He was a very hard worker with over 30 years as a service technician with Sears Roebuck & Co. Well respected for his attention to detail, and never took shortcuts.

One of his favorite leisure activities was listening to various jazz music styles and old school gospel. His smile, his late-night conversations, his sports point of views, and his presence will be missed. Donald's life was not short-lived, but lived well. Donald was preceded in death by his parents, Charlie Roberson and Susie Mae Roberson.

Left to cherish his memory...his loving daughters: Donmetria Robinson, Klisha Johnson, and Shanikqua Armstrong (bonus daughter); brothers: Charlie Robinson, Curtis Roberson, and Wilbur Roberson; sisters: Betty Glover, Libby Moore (Tim), and Louise Dorsey; grandchildren: Denyzia Armstrong, Destiny Roberson, Jeffrey Johnson, Jr., Trinity Johnson, Willie Standley, and Elijah Williams (bonus grandchildren); great-grandchild, Aiah Johnson, and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and friends.
