

Donial Fleming

July 5, 1944 - July 6, 2023

Donial Fleming affectionately called “Don” was born July 5, 1944 to Hoyt Fleming, Sr. and Ruth Fleming in Waverly, Florida.

Donial was a cunning, hard worker who always found a way to bring home the bacon and deliver the fun!

He was a true people person who loved to entertain and host big parties. It didn't matter where he was, he was always down for a good laugh and a great game. He was a force to be reckoned with when it came to his gaming skills, he would swoop in so fast you would be left scratching your head over into the next day about how he made that play.

Anyone who truly knew Donial, knew that he always had a story to tell for any situation imaginable. He always found a way to make his stories coincide with whomever he was speaking with to either bring cheer, enlightenment, or even share in sorrow. No matter what, he found a way to relate to anyone despite their status.

Donial's favorite gospel song was “Lord Do It For Me Right Now” performed by James Cleveland. He was a firm believer that God would do whatever was needed in your life as long as you prayed and put your trust in Him.

As you reflect on Donial today, he would want you to think of all the positive ways that he has impacted your life and smile knowing that he is waiting to tell you yet another great story.

Donial Fleming was preceded in death by his father, Hoyt Fleming, Sr. mother, Ruth Fleming, former wife, Mary Lee Hill, daughter, Leear Johnson; two sisters, Joyce Fleming and Mary J. Riley; three brothers, Hoyt "Fats" Fleming Jr., James Fleming and Roy "Paul" Allen Fleming.

Donial "Don" Fleming will be greatly missed, but his memories will be cherished by his Faithful Companion Madell Williams; three daughters: Charlene Harris (Garland), Chandra Connerton (Jon); Jacqueline Boges (Jeffery); four sons: Marion Bentley, Daryl Bentley, Tony Bentley, Anthony Bentley; three sisters: Ruthie Rutland (Clinton), Wilma Kendrick, Jeanette Lowe, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.
