

Donnette Rosemarie Prince

July 7, 1971 - November 23, 2021

Donnette was born to Aldith and Lennox Prince in Brooklyn New York on July 7th, 1971. She attended Holy Catholic elementary then went on to Satellite four Junior High of Performing Arts where she discovered her love for Arts. She went on to Erasmus Hall High in Brooklyn, shortly thereafter she relocated to Florida in with her parents. Donnette then completed her high school education at Evans High, she then attended Valencia still in pursuit of Art where she excelled in her craft.

Donnette leaves to cherish her memories:

Daughter: Azaria Prince

Parents: Lennox and Aldith Prince

Brother: Patrick Lindo (Eva)

Grand Parents: Lionel and Veronica Prince (Recently passed)

Nieces: Khadijah and Kierra Lindo

Uncles: Christian, Lester, Howard, Ben

Aunts: Merle, Deborah, Merlene, Lola, Noreene

And many cousins, other relatives and friends.

Several years ago, Donnette relocated to Atlanta Georgia, she wanted a demographic change with the hope of a brighter future for her daughter and herself. While maintaining that passion for Arts, her skills elevated to where she was drawing some exquisite portraits of Family and friends, she was able to later benefit as a source of income due to her talent.

Donnette had a strong love for God and remain rooted in her faith, while in Orlando she found comfort at "Church in the Sun" and was a member. She and her daughter also worshiped at New Destiny Church. Donnette was a kind and happy person, she always have a smile on her face. She loved spending time with her daughter and nieces. She dresses them as twins, take them to the mall movies and theme parks. Donnette will be dearly missed by everyone she has been in contact with,

Donnette may your light continue to shine bright.
