

Doris B. Lynch

January 18, 1939 - January 5, 2015

Doris B. Lynch was born January 18, 1939 in Yazoo, Mississippi to Louise Brown and Lev Brown. Doris eventually moved to Jacksonville, Florida, she resided there for thirty-five years until she became ill. In 2009 she moved to Orlando Florida.

Doris Lynch was a Respiratory Therapist from 1975 until 2004 at University Hospital, which is also known as Shands Hospital. Doris is the widower of Alphonso Lynch. The Lord saw fit to call Doris from her earthly home to her eternal home in glory on January 5, 2015. Her departure is a deep and personal loss to her family and many friends and she will be greatly missed by them all.

Doris was preceded in death by her husband, Alphonso Lynch, son, Douglas Brown, parents, Lev and Louise Brown. Doris leaves to cherish precious memories to : daughter, Shirley B. Thomas (Gene) of Orlando, Florida; son, Calvin Brown, Sr. of Jacksonville, Florida; granddaughters, Veronica Thomas, Shantrell D. Thomas, both of Orlando, Florida; grandson, Calvin Brown, Jr. of Jacksonville, Florida; brother, Curtis Brown of Springfield, Massachusetts; great grandchildren; nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Doris B. Lynch

---

October 22, 2023 at 05:49 PM

“ Gogie Allison lit a candle in memory of Doris B. Lynch

---

Gogie Allison - June 21, 2015 at 07:57 PM