

Mrs. Doris Carolyn Walton Brown

December 28, 1940 - December 2, 2017

Doris C. Walton Brown was born December 28, 1940 in Higgston, Georgia to David and Sarah Walton, Sr.

She attended Mt. Vernon High School in Montgomery County.

At an early age she was united in holy matrimony to William "Bill" Strickland, who preceded her in death. In 1961 she moved to Winter Park, Florida where she met the love of her life Charlie B. Brown. They were united in holy matrimony and for 51 years.

She worked as a Private Sitter and helped her husband build his Tile Business while obtaining her Certified Nursing Assistant Degree from Orlando College. She began her CNA career at Sunland for special needs children. She later began working for Hospice of Orange County and continued there when it was changed to Vitas. She remained there until her retirement in 2006.

She began her walk of faith at Bethlehem Baptist Church with Reverend L. W. Wilson as the Pastor and remained a faithful member through the church's transition into Agape Assembly with Dr. Richard Bishop as pastor. She remained a member there until her passing.

Doris departed her earthly life to begin her heavenly journey on December 2, 2017.

Doris was preceded in death by her husband, Charlie B. Brown, mother, Sarah Walton and father, David Walton, Sr.
