

Earlene Manning Blue

August 6, 1938 - April 23, 2019

Earlene M. Blue was born August 6, 1938 in Deland, Florida to the Late Mr. Raymond Manning and Mrs. Gussie Mae Manning. Born Twins Earlene and Earl (deceased) Manning.

Earlene was raised in Church of God in Christ at an early age, then later in life she joined Pennicostal Church of God where she served for 25 years, singing in Local Choir, District Choir and National Mass Choir, also Florida Mass Choir.

Earlene attended Johnson Kindergarten 3 years old to the age of 5, then to Euclid High School from 1st grade to the 5th grade, both in Deland, Florida. Then she relocated to Brackenridge, Penn for 3 years 6th to the 8th grade. After which she moved back to Winter Park, Florida in 1952 where she continued her education at Hungerford High School and later Graduated in 1956.

While attending high school she joined the marching band for 4 years and played on the basketball team. She then attended a Civil Service course at Jones High School and was appointed a position at Nashville, Tenn., but was unable to attend because of her age, she was not old enough.
