

Ebonee Nicole Porter

November 30, 1984 - August 4, 2024

Ebonee Nicole Porter was born in the loving arms of Hollis L. Porter, Sr. and Jacqueline R. Porter on November 30, 1984 in Portsmouth, Virginia.

As a youth, Ebonee excelled academically at Mayport and Deerwood Elementary Schools, Discovery Middle School, and University High School. After graduating high school, she went on to attend and graduate from the University of Miami where she obtained a Bachelors of Science in Biology and Psychology, with a minor in Chemistry.

Ebonee had a unique passion for academics and a great love for youth. Her quest to educate the next generation inspired her to spend countless hours tutoring young children across multiple subject matters. Her passion and gift to teach also led her to become an educator, tutoring in math and science in addition to teaching English both domestically and for several months, abroad in China.

Although her career and academia occupied a wealth of her time, Ebonee found the time for the simple pleasures in life and did the things she enjoyed. She spent her free time watching her favorite soap operas, spending quality time with family, and keeping up to date with politics.

Ebonee was a beacon of light in not only the lives of the countless young people she tutored, but also in the lives of every one she met. Her passionate wisdoms and investments in youth will be fondly remembered and treasured by all who were blessed to be in her presence.

Ebonee is survived by her loving Parents: Hollis L. Porter and Jacqueline R. Porter; Brothers: Hollis L. Porter, Jr. and Hassan C. Porter; Sisters: Jacolby R. Porter and Porsha L. Porter. She also leaves Nephews: Josiah, DaMikael, Hollis III, and Messiah; Nieces: Deserae and Braelynn; as well as a host of aunts, uncles, other loving relatives and friends.
