Eddie later relocated to Washington, DC, where he attended Greater Fellowship Baptist Church in Washington, DC. He met his wife, Pamela in 2006. The two remained inseparable, and were united in Holy Matrimony in 2013, while residing in Washington. Eddie was a loving and loyal husband and provider. “ He was my favorite Uncle who I considered as an extra Dad we laugh, we cussed, we fussed but always had so much love for each other. I'm glad I was able to see him 2 weeks before his tragic accident. The love he had for me was unconditional love that I will remember and cherish forever! The laugh, the smile, the fishing, the grilling and riding fly on his motorcycle words can't even express my loss and the love I have for him and the love he had for me. Seeing him taking the place of my Dad at my wedding walking down my Mom is a memory I will cherish forever. Now they have each other living large in Heaven! I Love You Uncle Ed ❤️🙏🥹
