May 22, 1934 - July 10, 2019

Edward Wells was born on May 22, 1934 in Windermere, Florida to Taylor and Aretha Wells. He attended school in Windermere, Florida and Maxey High School in Winter Garden, Florida.

Edward lived in Winter Haven, Florida. Once he was taken ill, he later moved to Kissimmee, Florida. In 1987, Edward moved to Orlando, Florida to live with his mother, Aretha Wells and his sister, Frances Channer.

He worked as a landscaper until his health began to decline in 2014.

Edward was a member of Friendship of St. Cloud under the leadership of Pastor Stallworth. Edward always attended church. In his late years, without transportation, he joined Miracle Temple in Altamonte Springs under the leadership of Elder C. Butler. His cousin, Willie Stephen and wife, Lucinda picked him up every Sunday. He loved church so much that he would be ready waiting at 7:30am for a 9:30am pick up.

All of his neighbors called him "Deacon Ed" as he was a neighborhood watch worker. You would find him handing out flyers and setting up the tents during annual neighborhood events.

He was preceded in death by: father, Taylor Wells; mother, Aretha Wells; brother, Willie L. Wells; sisters, Ruth Hamm, Jean M. Everett, Estelle Williams, and Alice Russell.

He leaves to cherish his memories to: son, Edward Wells, Jr. of Orlando, Florida; sister, Frances Channer of Orlando, Florida; special nephew, Charles Wesley Scott; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and a host of other loving relatives and sorrowing friends.
