

Elder Terry Lamar Gandy

October 13, 1957 - December 30, 2023

Terry Lamar Gandy was born on October 13, 1957, in Jasper, Florida to Apostle John W. Mosley and Lottie M. McClain. Terry attended Milford Senior High School in Milford, Delaware. After graduation, his career aspiration was to join the Navy. Terry met the love of his life, Darlese, in 2021, and they exchanged vows on October 15, 2022. Together, the love they shared for each other was breathtaking. Terry was employed at Hubbard Construction Company for over 30 years. He started his career as bulldozer operator, working his way to a construction supervisor until his retirement. elder Terry spent most of his life as a disciple spreading the gospel wherever he went. During his Christian journey Terry was children's Pastor, armor bearer and a Spiritual mentor. Terry was ordained as an Elder by his father, Apostle John W. Mosley, on Sunday October 11, 2020, in Hurlock, Maryland. Terry joined The Experience Christian Center under the leadership of Bishop Derrick L. McRae in 2021. Terry was a football fanatic. He was a loyal Philadelphia Eagles and Florida Gators fan. Terry's choice of music ranged from Maxwell to Donald Lawrence . If you knew Terry, you knew he loved wearing Polo clothing, Nike, Invicta watches, and various cologne brands. Terry went home to be with the Lord on December 30, 2023, surrounded by his loving family. He was a devoted husband, father, son, brother, uncle, grandfather, great-grandfather, godfather, and friend.

He was preceded in death by his bonus mother Geraldine Mosley and bonus son William McNabb, Jr. Terry leaves a legacy of precious and everlasting memories to be cherished by his devoted wife Darlese Gandy, Orlando, FL; Father, Apostle John W.
