The Master Called

I'm so sorry I had to leave you My loved ones oh so dear But you see, the Master called me, His voice was very clear! I had made my reservation A heaven bound ticket for one, And I knew that He would call me When He felt my work was done I know that your hearts are heavy Because I have gone away, But when the Master called me, I knew I couldn't stay. Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you My loved ones, oh so dear, But you see, the Master called me And now, I'm resting here. Yes, I've crossed on over to glory And to you all I say

Just stay in the hands of Jesus And we'll meet again some day.

“ I remember the time before Bruce and I moved to Florida. We would always stop by to see her when we were on vacation. She was always so hospitable, and she was a very good cook. I especially remember her delicious lasagna. She was a leader, a great organizer, and she kept the family informed of so many things. She will be greatly missed. My deepest condolences and prayers for all of the bereaved family members, relatives and friends.

“ *WOW!
That was the word that came to mind when I heard of her passing. Yes, she would also call me in the morning, I would look at the clock and it would be around 8:30ish. I'm not an early person and she would say let me tell you about a matter and call me later, I would say okay Ms. Eleanor. She would not let me forget to get back with her. She was one of the most knowledgeable people I had ever known. She had a lot to give to whoever gave her the time. I only met her a few months ago. She approached me and ask my name and from that very moment she became a second mom, sister and dear friend whom I will truly miss. I received my last email from her a few hours before it would be one of her last. She will be missed by many.*

“ Ms Eleanor, I will truly miss you my dear. I never met such a spicy yet sweetheart lady like you. Ms Eleanor taught me so much since I met her. My neighbor, friend, HOA buddy and second mom. Ms Eleanor would call me early mornings, late nights. I never knew that Saturday night would be our last conversation. We would laugh a few minutes, then back to business. Ms Eleanor, would always say Laronda after we're done with this project; I'm going to enjoy my retirement!! Do you hear me?? I said yes ma'am and you should. When I heard the news of her passing, a piece of my heart shattered. Ms Eleanor, I love you, respect you, honor you and now take your rest. ❤️🙏🙌 To the family, my prayers are with you all.
