

Elijah Nathaniel Jerome Peterson

April 25, 2001 - April 13, 2022

Elijah Nathaniel Jerome Peterson was born on April 25, 2001 at Arnold Palmer Hospital in Orlando, Florida to parents, Deminelle Lois Skipper-Peterson and Reginald Peterson. He attended West Orange High School in Winter Garden, Florida. Elijah was a handsome young man that had a beautiful smile. He was a wellmannered and very quiet child. Although he was not very talkative, he was easy going and very friendly. Elijah loved dancing, playing sports such as, football and basketball, working with his hands, and hanging out with his friends. He also enjoyed computers, cell phones and gaming. Looking good was important to him, so he was always working out and building up his muscles. Elijah, affectionately known as “King Elijah”, had so much love for his family, friends and life. He really cherished his brothers. Red and black were his favorite colors. All in all, Elijah was a good person to be around and will be missed dearly by those who knew and loved him.
