

Ella Pearl Ebanks

November 22, 1967 - December 4, 2025

Ella Pearl Ebanks was born on November 22, 1967, in Indian Town, Florida, to parents, Arthur Lee and Dorothy Bacon.

Ella was a very nurturing person who stood in the gap as a mother figure to many of the neighborhood children. She had a heart of gold and a deep love for children and family, which resulted in her assisting in the raising and rearing of her nieces and nephews, among others.

An excellent cook, Ella loved sharing her good dishes with all that was in her presence. She knew her way around the kitchen and was known to feed anyone who could and would eat.

In her pastime, Ella loved to color and give the paintings to everyone. She wanted to bring joy and inspiration to others, and she did it through her art.

More than anything, Ella was one who really loved the Lord and sharing His word with others every chance she could. She was a faithful and dedicated member of New Hope Missionary Baptist Church in Kissimmee, Florida, under the leadership of bishop Gary Gray.

Ella was preceded in death by her father, Arthur Lee Bacon; mother, Dorothy Gray Bacon; husband, Vernon Mullings, Sr.; son, Vernon Mullings, Jr., and 9 ot her siblings.

Lett to cherish her memory: her loving son, Jarred L Mullings (Bretny) of Kansas, Missouri; her loving siblings: brothers: Willie Bennett (Jean) of Jacksonville, FL, Jerome Gray, of Kissimmee, FL, Eddie Bacon of Philadelphia, PA, and Craig Coleman, of Orlando, FL; sisters: Mamie "Jane" James of Memphis, TN, Kizzy Sperman, (Ernest) of Jesup, GA, Annie Mae Highsmith of Kissimmee, Florida, Tawana Coleman of New Orleans, LA, Barbara Dolphus (Anthony), Andre Ashley, and Isabelle Bacon, all of Kissimmee, FL; 6 granddaughters, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, the many bonus children she raised goddaughter, Simone Nembhard (Cynthia); godson, Chris Gillion; other loving relatives and many dear friends.
