

Eric Franklin Sims, Jr.

November 24, 1989 - September 22, 2019

Eric F. Sims, Jr. was born November 24, 1989 in Eustis, Florida to parents Crystal Davis and Eric F. Sims, Sr.

Eric attended Tavares High School in Tavares, Florida. During his school days he enjoyed football, basketball and weight lifting. Football was his favorite. He wore jersey #6, and during his senior year, he earned the “Most Valuable Player” award. After leaving school, he worked for ABM Company for which he traveled a lot. In his past time, he enjoyed playing video games.

Eric Sims, Jr. was the proud father of seven lovely children, whom he cherished dearly. He was a true family man. No one ever understood the special bond Eric shared with his dogs, boy was he a dog lover to his heart. There were people in Eric’s life that were truly near and dear to him, Grandma Frances Porter and a true bond that will remain in the heart of his brother, Jerel Sims, one he truly looked up too. Bruh, you will be missed!

Eric was preceded in death by his wife: Courtney Sims; grandfathers: Ben F. Sims and Willie B. Porter; grandmothers: Mary Alice Gaines and Frances Porter; and step-grandfather, David Gaines.

Left to cherish his memory are his loving children: Shailyn Green, Bryson Sims, Benfrance Sims, Eric Sims, III, Eshanti Sims, Elijah Sims and Edreyah
