March 14, 1948 - June 4, 2024

Ernestine Tucker Smith was born March 14, 1948 in Cairo, Georgia to Isaac and Hattie Mae Tucker. She graduated from Magnolia High School in Thomasville, Georgia.

After graduating high school, Ernestine relocated to Orlando, Florida. As a young adult, she enjoyed writing poetry and was offered a position with the company Hallmark.

Ernestine loved the Lord and was devoted to her local church. She was a faithful member at Zion Hill Missionary Baptist Church for many years until her health began to decline. She loved participating in church activities and traveling with the church on cruises and vacations throughout the years.

Ernestine loved her family very much. She enjoyed spending quality time with family and friends laughing and talking, playing cards, and simply having a good time. Her pastimes includes playing bingo, cooking, and attending senior activities at the L. Claudia Allen Senior Center in Orlando. She also enjoyed going to flea markets and shopping.

On June 4, 2024, Ernestine answered her Master's call, quietly leaving this earthly life and entering into eternal rest.
