Euphemia Wright, fondly known to many as, “Ms. Puncy”, was born June 24, 1944 in White Hill St. Elizabeth Jamaica, West Indies to parents, Agnes Mullings and Benjamin Bailey. She attended the White Hill Primary School and later trade school learning the skills of dress making and tailoring in St. Elizabeth, Jamaica West Indies.

She was not just the matriarch of her family, but was the heart from which boundless generosity and kindness flowed. She was a die hard Seventh Day Adventist, who served in the church choir and as a deaconess. She cultivated a life marked by selfless dedication. She knew the true essence of wealth was not in the material, but in being rich in faith and a spirit of love.

She was preceded in death by her Father, Benjamin Bailey; Mother, Agnes Mullings; Spouse, Leonard Wright; Son, Ricky Wright; 4 Brothers: Sidney Laird, Ismail Bailey, Jasper Bailey, and Valty Bailey; 1 Sister, Viora Bailey; 1 Grandson, Kemoze Chambers; and other close family members.

Left to cherish her memory are Sons: Devon Dodd of Jamaica, West Indies, Richard Wright (Karen) of Eustis, Florida, Callitraron Wright of West Palm Beach, Florida, and Duane Wright of Orlando, Florida; Daughters: Janet Thompson Wright of Orlando, Florida, Pauline Wright of Orlando, Florida, and Golain Wright Betancourt (David) of Orlando, Florida; Siblings: Cordelia Sosa of Orlando, Florida, Polita Tyson (Frank) of Jamaica, West Indies, Elizabeth Bailey of Jamaica, West Indies, Marcia Bailey of Port St. Lucie, Florida, and Rebecca Rowe of Jamaica, West Indies; Grandchildren: Jason Dodd, Tania Wright, Marlon Thompson, Chelsea Thompson, Ambria Wright, Ricardo Wright, Carlton Wright, and Caitlyn Wright; and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and friends.

“ Ms. Punsie, mommy, mom, aunty are some names you were affectionally called. You have not only cared for your own children, but many others such as me who visited your home many of days back in the 80's. Your welcoming smiles and other greetings would light up any room. You have gone before us, but will never leave the hearts of those you've touched. Thank you for the memories! Sleep well until that bright morning when we all meet again. Carren R
