

Eustace T. Elliot

August 4, 1918 - December 28, 2013

Eustace T. Elliott, 95, was born August 4, 1918 to Ambero Gillings and Mary Elliott. He received his education in St. Elizabeth, Jamaica. Mr. Elliott worked for many years and retired as a chef. Eustace was a member of St. John Free Methodist Church in Tavares, Florida under the leadership of Reverend C. A. Ashley. He was united in holy matrimony to Grace Elliott who preceded him in death. The Lord in his infinite wisdom deemed it timely on December 28, 2013, that Mr. Eustace T. Elliott had fulfilled his earthly duties and that the time had come for him to be escorted to his eternal home in glory. His departure is a deep and personal loss to his family and friends and he will be greatly missed by them all. He leaves to cherish precious memories to a devoted nephew as a son: Mr. Bowen Gillings (Sheila); nephews: Neil and Christopher; devoted stepdaughters: Julia Lowe Smith and family, Elizabeth Dean and Shirley Ward; devoted close friends and neighbors: Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Johnson, Diane, Rosalind, Catryce Peoples and Bernice Odums; a host of other relatives and sorrowing friends.
