

Eziya Lanaya Swift

December 2, 2004 - March 12, 2020

Eziya La’Naya Swift was born December 2, 2004 in Orlando, Florida to parents Krystal Jackson and Ezra Swift. She attended Lyman High School in Longwood, Florida.

Eziya was a loving, sarcastic, self taught musician. There was never a dull moment or sad face in Ezya’s presence. She always had a joke to tell and even created her own words to fit her stories. She was a helpful, nonchalant joy to be around.

Eziya was the Y.O.L.O. Queen who lived life as she saw fit. She mastered in. “It is what it is” with a minor in “What you see is what you get”. Eziya was the excitement of the crew who kept every one lit. She was unapologetic with her thoughts and open with her love. She was larger than life and was sure to leave lasting memories forever.

Left to cherish Eziya’s memory are her parents: Krystal Jackson (Quentin) of Casselberry, Florida and Ezra Swift of Apopka, Florida; siblings: Ezaria Swift of Casselberry, Florida, Quade Bradford of Casselberry, Florida, Jayceon Bradford of Tavares, Florida and Essence Swift of Atlanta, Georgia; grandfather, Eugene Swift of Apopka, Florida, grandmothers: Lashawn Jackson (Cohen) of Apopka, Florida and Kay Swift of Apopka, Florida; Great Grandfather: Bobby Jackson of Apopka, Florida; and and a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ This was the only night we got to spend time together, and I will most definitely never forget it. I wasn't friends with her for the longest amount of time but the time that we were it was constantly amazing and funny memories with her. She never failed to make the energy around us nothing but positive and I enjoyed every moment. She made school something I looked forward to because I knew at the end of the day I'd get to go to gym class and she'd be there to joke around with me and laugh at anything and everything until class ended and walked to the bus ramp / pick up line after. It's been a while since everything happened and I'm still genuinely coping with it all and even now these few lines I'm able to write for her now are difficult, but in the short amount of time we were friends she was the closest I've ever gotten to someone truly genuine and outstanding in every way possible. In order to always keep her with me and knowing she'll forever be thought about I got a tattoo dedicated to her over a conversation we once had where she was going on about how gorgeous peacocks were and the colors of them. I will absolutely never forget her, and the immense amount of love I have for her will truly never fade.
