Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever

And your Lord has decreed that you worship none but Him. And that you be dutiful to your parents. If one of them or both of them attain old age in your life, say not to them a word of disrespect, nor shout at them but address them in terms of honour." Quran 17:23

“ Mrs. Fannie was my first sitter when I was little. The Barnes family is like family to me and will always be. I always asked about her when I talked to Stephen when ever I saw him out or online. I haven't seen her in so long in person, it's hard to take this information of here departure from this world. I am sending my love to her family, the ones I know and ones I don't. RIP Auntie Fannie.
