

Fannie Mae Wesley

May 4, 1959 - September 8, 2020

Fannie Mae Wesley was born May 4, 1959 in Zellwood, Florida to parents, James and Mozell Wesley.

Fannie attended Frederick Elementary School in Zellwood, Florida and Apopka Memorial High School. After high school, she pursued a career as a Certified Nurses Assistant. She was employed several years at different facilities in Central Florida.

Fannie was a member of Triumph the Church and Kingdom of Christ from an early age until well into her adult years. Fannie loved to sing joyful noise to the Lord, as singing was one of her many talents.

Fannie also had other talents as well as cooking. Fannie's most admired devotion was her family. She was a loving mother, grandmother, sister and beloved aunt to many.

She was preceded in death by her father, James Wesley; mother, Mozell Wesley; brother, Dennis Wesley; and sisters: Lillie Mae Henderson and Dennie Mae Smith.

James Wesley (Ruby) and Johnnie Wesley, both of Orlando, Florida; Don Wesley (Tee) of Leesburg, Florida, Janie Hopkins, Mozena Bascom (Ben), both of Orlando, Florida, Rose Johnson (Arthur) of Apopka, Florida, Rosa Burton (Clinton) of Zellwood, Florida, and DeTara Rabon (Darryl) of Apopka, Florida; grandchildren: George Smith, Jr. Letia Smith, Ciara Smith and Jordan Smith, all of Orlando, Florida; great grandchild, Brielle Smith of Orlando, Florida; aunts: Beatrice Bibbs, Easter Mae Brooks and Mary Maxwell, all of Apopka, Florida; nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
