

Frances Eyvette Brown

July 22, 1971 - April 21, 2024

Frances Eyvette Brown was born on July 22, 1971 in Kissimmee, Florida to parents Annie Mae Brown and Joseph Gaston who both preceded her in death. She was the fourth child of six children. She attended public schools in Osceola County and Osceola High School.

Eyvette was a fun and loving person. Her bright smile and sense of humor made her easy to get along with. She had many lifelong friends because of the person she was to them. While being fun and welcoming, Eyvette always stood for what she believed in. She was never afraid to speak her mind.

Eyvette devoted her life to being a loving mother and grandmother to her children and grandson. There was nothing she wouldn't do for them. She was a protector of family and always has their back.

She was very passionate about dancing, and always being the "The life of the party". She loved listening to music, going to the beach, looking good and making Tik-Tok videos.

She was preceded in death by her Mother Anna Mae Brown and Father Joseph Gaston, Brother" Clinton Brown.

She leaves to cherish her memory, Her husband: Corey Daniels, Her Children:

Tamelia Daniels, Elondra Daniels Grandchild: Amere Martinez; Sisters: Annette Bell, Donnetta Wilcox, Tansy Wilcox; Brothers: Anthony Farley, Thomas Allen, Demetric McMillian; Aunties: Frances Lindsey. A host of nieces and nephews.
