

Fred Mills Pinkney

May 5, 1936 - December 14, 2022

Fred Mills Pinkney was born on May 5, 1936, in Kissimmee, Florida to the late Hugh Ulysses Mills and Annie Mae Yates. Fred was the youngest of his mother's eight children. After the passing of his mother, Fred was adopted by his aunt and uncle, IB and Prof Pinkney.

He received his early education in Lake County, Florida and graduated from Eustis High School. He attended Florida A&M University in Tallahassee, Florida, where he earned a bachelor's degree in Education. Fred met, fell in love with, and married Deloris Montgomery of Clermont, and to this blessed union, Frederick Edmond, Andrea Jeanette, and Christopher James were born.

Fred began his teaching career in Lake County, and he also worked in Orange County, where he taught both Physical Education and Driver's Education. Later in life he became a professional painter and retired from the Orange County School Board.

He was a member of the Episcopal Church of St. John the Baptist in Orlando, where he was a member of the choir.

Fred was preceded in death by his loving wife of 46 years, Deloris, his brothers: Mitchell Ateca, Hugh Roland Mills, and Robert Mills; his sisters:

Wilimina Thompson, Dorothy A. Carter, Katie J. Wright, and Iris T. Lemdon.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving Daughter, Andrea J. Duckery (Elgin C. Duckery), his Sons, Frederick and Christopher; Grandsons: Elgin Weston and Ethan James; Great Grandchild, Emilia Deloris; Sister, Sylvia Young; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and many devoted friends.
