

Freddie Miller, Jr.

March 3, 1962 - January 8, 2024

Freddie Miller, Jr. was born on March 3, 1962, in Rockledge, Florida to Freddie, Sr. and Allene Miller. Freddie attended school in Rockledge before moving to Wildwood, Florida. He graduated from Wildwood High School in 1980.

Freddie was baptized into Christ at an early age at the Factory Street Church of Christ, which later became Fiske Boulevard Church of Christ. He attended the Ninth Street Church of Christ until he became ill.

Freddie moved to Orlando, Florida and began his career as a plumber. Freddie redirected his career and became an Orange County Corrections Officer, retiring after 30 years of service.

Freddie was passionate about his love of music. From a young age, he would sit around with friends and family and listen to music of all types. His love of music continued until he was called home. Freddie loved his family and friends. One of his favorite sayings was, "God first, be happy, and enjoy life." He left these words for his sister Pam. "I have gotten too weak to make the trip to see you again. I love you and I cherish everyday that the Lord gave us together."

On Monday, January 8, 2024, God called him home. He is predeceased by his parents Freddie, Sr. and Allene Miller.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories, his devoted siblings: Pamela Lawrence of Ocala, Florida, Alan Miller (Jennifer) of Orlando, Florida, Kimberly Miller of Lake City, Florida, Rebecca Miller Clark (Greg) of Mount Dora, Florida; nephew: Edward Riles, Jr. (Christian); nieces: Alexis Miller, Sarah Clark Allen (Freddie); special cousins: Dossie Singleton and Cornelius Miller; a host of aunts, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“Freddie was a special and valued friend to me. He was a shining example of exemplary manners, thoughtfulness, and generosity. He was a caring, considerate, contemplative, and principled soul. He came here for a time to do the good work, a mission his soul agreed to complete. What qualities Freddie developed here in this life, I believe are even more refined in the place he's in now. I miss you brother and will miss you always.”
