

Frederick "Fred" James

August 22, 1946 - August 4, 2025

Frederick James affection known as "Fred" among family and friends, was born the sixth of twelve children on August 22, 1946, in Orlando, Florida, to Emory and Mary C. James. He grew up in Britts Quarters.

Fred was a happy person, even though tragedy struck him at a young age, and he was in an accident when he was 16 years old, leaving him a quadriplegic. With the help of physical therapy and occupational therapy, he learned how to walk with a cane.

After the death of his mother, he was admitted into a nursing facility and became happy with the people around him. He also enjoyed when family came around to see him. Everyone loved his smile. In his free time, he enjoyed playing dominoes with his friends at the facility.

Fred accepted Christ before he gained his wings.

Fred was preceded in death by his father, Emory James; and mother, Mary C. James.

Left to cherish his precious love and many memories... his brothers: Alvin James of Winter Garden, Florida, Henderson James of Orlando, Florida, and Forrest James of Winter Garden, Florida; sisters, Celia Small of Orlando,

Florida, and Francine James (a devoted sister) of Orlando, Florida; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.
