

George Alphonso Cambric Sr.

August 24, 1954 - February 5, 2024

George Alphonso Cambric, Sr. was born on August 24, 1954, to Robert Cambric, Sr. and Lucille Smith Cambric. He is a native Floridian, as he was born in Orlando, Florida.

George Alphonso Cambric, Sr., graduated from Wymore High School in Eatonville, Florida. After graduating high school, George was employed at Winter Park Memorial Hospital for many years. There he met Joe Ann Jordan, and they fell in love and united in Holy Matrimony. To their union one child was born joining his two brothers and sister in their beautiful family.

George's abundant love subsequently extended to his long-term relationship with Alfreda Williams. They were blessed with two sons while also raising Alfreda's daughter. After Alfreda's passing, George met Susie Bailey, who was his supportive and loving partner until she transitioned.

He enjoyed working on cars with his daddy. He also loved running track in his youth and was the fastest in the neighborhood. George was a dutiful son and father as well as an amazing brother. He was a gifted and colorful storyteller who brought smiles and laughter to family, friends, and even strangers. His soul has gone to rest, but the love and joy he shared will endure. George Alphonso Cambric, Sr. was preceded in death by his father: Robert Cambric, Sr., wife: Joe Ann Cambric, brother: Robert Cambric, Jr., partners: Alfreda
