

George Rodney Scott

March 21, 1968 - May 13, 2018

George Rodney Scott was born to George Scott (deceased) and Leona Scott McKenzie on March 21, 1968. He was the youngest of five children.

He grew up in Winter Park, Florida and attended Edgewater and Lake Brantley High School. Rodney loved Art and drew very well. In Middle School, his art was displayed in the Winter Park Art Festival. He wrote poems and was very good at playing basketball. His Mother and Aunt were excellent cooks, so he made that his career. He cooked in many restaurants. Some allowed him to make his own recipes.

He was a joy to his mother and always was concerned about her welfare. He was very comical, always making you laugh as he mimicked the roles of different people. One of his favorite saying was "Imagine That!" He loved his family and children very much, and he had a special place in his heart for his granddaughter, Joella whom he would often tell you to look up on Facebook to see her, Ashley and R. J. He loved going to the library doing research on different subjects. Many of his friends enjoyed talking to him. He loved sharing with you the things he learned through life experiences.

After Rodney was sick for a while he wanted to change his profession and he entered in Daytona College for Nursing. He passed at Hospice of Comforter. His Family was by his side daily. He will be dearly missed.

George Rodney Scott is survived by his daughter: Ashley Jones, his son: George R Scott Jr., his granddaughter: Joella McKinley Scott; his Mother: Leona McKenzie, his brothers: Terry Alexander (Ruby) Orlando, FL; Vincent Taylor, Orlando, FL; his sister: Connie Steele (Tracy) Orlando, FL; Angie Scott Orlando, FL; Aunts, Leola Hatten (Roscoe) Apopka FL; Fannie Baker, Winter Garden, FL; Betty Ann Smith in Altamonte FL; and Margie Riggins in Orlando, FL; he has seven nieces and a host of cousins other relatives and many friends.

“ We started being friends from Killarney Elem. through Winter Park Jr. High. I remember we use to go to his dad's pool room (Mr. George R.I.P.) and drink sodas eat chips play pool for hours and sometimes doing our homework because we shared classes from the 4th through the 6th grade Some days we'll leave his grandma house on Garfield and walk to Chocolate City making Renee mad cause we're so loud and just hang out. We lost contact over the years because of me moving all time but every time we saw each other it was like times laughing and joking. It's 4/07/2025 and I'm watching these kids playing kickball and he ran across my mind I started wondering on how he's doing and to my surprise to find out he was gone. This was my brother and I hated that we lost contact. R.I.P. my brother !!!! Your Homie Bobby Lovett.

“ In sympathy. Although no words of sympathy can ease the loss you bear, still, may you find comfort knowing others truly care. May you find continued comfort from the Bible and cherished family memories.

“ Rodney, you were so humble and you truly understood that "this old world can be so hard for the living" sometimes. Look to She Who Whispers for a peaceful and safe journey.

“ Earth has no sorrow that Jesus can't heal. I'm comforted in knowing that you are no longer suffering but are resting. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. I love you always, your cousin, Ebony

“ I am so saddened to hear of Rodney's passing. He walked into my place of employment about a year ago and I was shocked because I hadn't seen him since he was a little boy. As we laughed and reminisced about those days on Carver Street in Winter Park when I baby sat him and his sisters, Rene' and Connie. I really enjoyed that day of laughter and smiles we shared and will never forget it.

Family, I am so deeply sorry for loss and if you need anything, please don't hesitate to call me or email me. I will be praying for your strength and endurance through this most difficult time.

Mr. Scott was a special person always nice and polite from the first day I met him at Walmart. Then by chance, he came into the office where I work. Rest on Mr. Scott I will miss talking to you and hearing your voice. I will keep the family in prayer.
