

Geraldine Lockhart

May 27, 1937 - July 4, 2013

On May 27, 1937 in a small town called Ellaville, GA, God added the 7th precious jewel to the collection of Adolphus & Willie T. Moore. It's a girl, the mid-wife announced and with hearts of joy they named her Betty Geraldine. Betty grew up in Schley County, GA. until the age of 10 years. The family relocated to Apopka, FL and she continued her education in the Orange County Public school system. In addition to going to school Betty was a migrant worker. It was on one of her seasonal trips to New York that she met and married her first husband Joseph Lockhart. (he preceded her in death). On November 10, 1985 she was united in holy matrimony to James Butler of Fayette, MS. In the early 50's she joined Mt. Olive SDA Church where she diligently served (choir, usher, pathfinder leader and master guide) until her health failed in 2000. Those that knew her, knew her to be a servant, always willing to help somebody. She leaves to cherish her precious memories: A devoted husband: James Butler; Six Daughters: Denise L. Tarver, Florence L. Sands (deceased), Janice L. Thompson (Leon) all of Apopka, FL.; Cynthia L. Sims of Orlando, FL., Rhonda L. Smothers (Sam) of Orange City, FL.; Phyllis L. Crittenden (Rodney) of Ocoee, FL.; One Step-Son: James Butler of Fayette, MS.; Two Brothers: Leamon Moore of Syracuse, NY. and Thomas (Peter) Moore (Annie Jo) of Middletown, NY.; Two Sister-in-Laws: Mary Louise Culver (Mose) of Fayette, MS., Bobbie Jean Long of Orlando, FL.; One Aunt: Elizabeth Moore of Ellaville, GA.; Twenty one Grandchildren; Thirty Three Great Children; One God-Daughter Alverta Patterson (Deceased). A host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
