

Ginger "Jenny" Mitchell Thornton

September 12, 1960 - May 16, 2019

Ginger Thornton affectionately known as "Jenny Mitchell" was born September 12, 1960 in Winter Garden, Florida to parents Willis Wynter and Alice Wright. She was born during Hurricane Donna, which would prove to be prophetic in her personality. Ginger was indeed a head strong Woman of God.

Ginger worked as an LPN Nurse for over 20 plus years. She began working with children in hospice on to Geriatrics throughout her career. Ginger was dedicated to her work and taking care of her patients. She worked for many families and medical facilities throughout the Central Florida area.

Today, we are silent, remembering "Jenny" as the fun, lovable, fashionista who everyone chose to have as a friend and was willing to be a friend to all.

During her illness, she remained that strong stubborn nurse we all knew. She leaned on the Lord, calling upon Him to help her bear the pain. She laughed and joked until the end. Stating, "If they bring me back, please have a pepsi on the side!"

Thursday, May 16, 2019 at Terra Vista Rehabilitation and Health Center, Ginger stepped across the threshold we call death and stepped into one of the rooms of our Heavenly Father's mansion.

Ginger was preceded in death by her parents: Willis Wynter and Alice Wright; brother: Walter Mitchell.

She leaves to cherish her memories... Daughters: Gentlealice Jones (Mitchell), Charlotte Thornton of Orlando, Florida, and Treasure Allen of Panama City, Florida; Godson: Anthony Watkins, II of Orlando, Florida, Sisters: Bettye Clark, Rosa Mitchell Thompson and Lavern Mitchell (Cornelius) all of Winter Garden, Florida; God-sister: Yolanda Angry; Grandchildren: Alori, Malcolm, Jr. Arihanna, Ginger-Grace, and Garrison; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and saddened friends.

“ To The Family of Ginger Mitchell Thornton: I was saddened to learn of the passing of your BELOVED Ginger on just yesterday, (Saturday, August 29, 2020), and it has been a year since she has passed away. I met Ginger in the year 2003 at Holy Convocation hosted by the renowned gospel singer and pastor, Donnie McClurkin in Freeport, New York. I found Ginger to be a very outgoing and friendly person, with a "bubbly" personality. Also, she was very comical. Hold dear to the precious, precious memories of Ginger, and know that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. May GOD continue to strengthen you and keep you is my earnest prayer.
