

Gwendolyn Moses

August 15, 1957 - September 29, 2014

Gwendolyn Moses was born August 15, 1957 in Lumpkin, Georgia to Mr. Grover Sr. and Mrs. Fair Lilla Moses. Sister Gwendolyn Moses received her education at the public schools in Lumpkin, Georgia. She graduated and received her high school diploma in 1976 from Lumpkin High School in Lumpkin, Georgia.

At an early age, Gwendolyn joined St. Mark Baptist Church in Richland, Georgia. Upon relocation to Sorrento, Florida she moved her membership to New Hope Missionary Baptist Church in Sorrento, Florida under the pastoralship of Pastor James McKenzie. Gwendolyn then moved to Apopka, Florida and later moved her church affiliation to New Progressive Freewill Holiness Church under the leadership of Bishop James McFarley where she remained until her demise on September 29, 2014.

Although Gwendolyn didn't give birth to any children, Gwen was a mother figure to many of her nieces and nephews among other children as well. Gwendolyn loved her family dearly, every niece and nephew had a special place in her heart. Gwen never met a stranger, she would befriend everyone she had the pleasure of coming in contact with.

Gwen departed this life on September 29, 2014 to enter an eternal life where there are no more tears, pain, suffering or disappointment.

Gwendolyn Moses was preceded in death by her parents, Mr. Grover, Sr. and Mrs. Fair Lilla Moses, and one sister, Lucille Moses, nephew, Vincent Moses.

Gwendolyn leaves to cherish precious memories: a special niece, Greta Johnson of Apopka, Florida; nephew, Kelvin Johnson; five brothers, Grover, Jr. (Gloria) of Apopka, Florida, Ernest, Eugene of Richland, Georgia, Walter of Columbus, Georgia and William of Lumpkin, Georgia; six sisters, Gloria Johnson (Robert) of Apopka, Florida, Birthella Johnson of Lumpkin, Georgia, Arcola Davis (Valentine), Marilyn Hunts (Marvin), Loraine King, all of Columbus, Georgia and Carolyn Moses of Richland, Georgia; one uncle, Walter Moses of Richland, Georgia; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.
