

Hayzell Brown

June 29, 1934 - August 23, 2021

Hayzell Brown was born June 29, 1934 in Stuckey, Florida to Henrietta Taylor and Roy Brown.

He attended the Public Schools in Lake County. He attended Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church from childhood until he became an adult. Hayzell was an agricultural farmer and enjoyed selling peanuts and crops on his local corner. Another hobby Hayzell enjoyed was getting his family together for their annual family reunions each year. He made sure he chartered buses and helped to make hotel reservations. He was on the board committee as treasurer for many years.

Hayzell was preceded in death by his parents, Roy Brown and Henrietta Taylor, sisters, Christine Lumpkin and Eva Mae Robinson and brother, Joe Taylor.

Hayzell leaves to cherish precious memories to his children: Heather Williams of Stuckey, Florida, Jeanette Williams of Alabama and son, Johnny Smith of Alabama; sister: Cornelia Terry of Stuckey, Florida; twelve grandchildren: beloved nieces: Renee Young of Orlando, Florida and Janice Stroud of Stuckey, Florida; a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends

“ I spent some days on the corner in Stuckey while he sold his peanuts, talking with Brother Brown. He knew so much history about the area. He will be greatly missed. Rest In Peace.
