

Hezekiah Milton

September 25, 1934 - November 2, 2021

“To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heavens”

A Time To Be Born: Hezekiah Milton was born September 25, 1934 in Flowerview Florida to John Milton and Leacie Page Milton.

A Time To Learn: Hezekiah Milton attended FAMU (Florida A & M University) where he studied Auto Service Station Mechanic. He successfully completed the training on May 27, 1967.

A Time to Labor: Hezekiah was an Auto Mechanic, he was good at what he did and if you needed him he was always just a phone call away.

A Time To Enjoy: Hezekiah loved life and loved to spend time with those he loved. His sisters and brothers meant everything to him. He loved talking with his nieces and nephews sharing his life long wisdom with them and occasionally a little fun trash talk.

A Time To Worship: He loved to serve the Lord. He attended church regularly until he wasn't able to attend any longer. That never stopped him from Praising God and sharing God's Word with others. He will truly be missed.

A Time of Departure: Hezekiah was preceded in death by his parents, Leacie and John Milton; wife, Jackie Milton; sons, Bruce and Wayne Milton; siblings, Robert Young, Willie James Milton, Minnie Lee Herring, Malachi Milton, John Henry Milton and Juanita Worthy.

Hezekiah Milton leaves to cherish precious memories to: Grandchildren: Wayne Milton, Jr. of Orlando, Florida and Tangela Gatz of Chicago, Illinois. Nephews: Frank Herring, Greg Herring, Calvin Herring and Willie Herring all of Orlando, Florida, Edward Leon Herring of St. Petersburg, Florida, Derrick Milton, Willie C. Milton and Roger Milton all of Flowersview, Florida. Nieces: Edna Howard, Debra H. Wright, Sonya Herring-Paul, Evelyn Clark, Shannon Nixon, all of Orlando, Florida and Janice Milton Brown of Alabama; a host of great nieces and nephews, cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.
