“ *Dad;
You're surely missed as I got the terrible news that you're no longer with us. I cherish the time I knew and spent with you regardless, I'm already missing our phone calls on week-ends and special occasions. My wish in the end is that I wish that I'd known exactly what was taking place with regards to your health although you'd told me that you'd been to the doctor. You were and is still lived regardless of circumstances. In God we trust.
Your loving daughter, Velta
