

Hubert Lee Brown

September 20, 1950 - March 3, 2021

Born first of twins delivered by Mother Lottie Gordon Brown was Hubert Lee Brown and Herbert Lee Brown on September 20, 1950 in Zellwood, Florida. Moving soon after, the family settled in Tangerine, Florida where the twins attended Tangerine Elementary School. Their secondary school years were completed at Phyllis Wheatley Junior and Senior High School in Apopka, Florida. After graduating high school, Hubert entered the military serving in Vietnam as his sibling attended Florida A & M University. Marriage and family was Hubert's choosing and Herbert was called into the ministry. Yet they maintained a close relationship and fellowship. Their separation begun as Herbert was called into eternity in January of 2020 and was then reestablished when Hubert met an untimely death in March of 2021. Hubert was also preceded in death by his Mother, Lottie G. Brown, Sister, Laurene Brown Duke; and Brothers: Julius Gordon, Joe Gordon, Robert Brown, Willie Brown and Reverend Herbert Brown. He leaves to cherish his memory...Daughters: Tracy Wilkins (Demond) and Tiffany Williams (Curtis); Son, Tevin Brown; Grandchildren: Bradley, Brandi, Tyson and Chelsi; Great Grandson, Brayden; Siblings: Mildred Broadwater, James A. Brown and Reverend Frank J. Brown, Jr. (Dr. Shirley); Sisters-in-law: Katie Maude Gordon and Pearl Campbell; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
