

Irene Luella Cherry "Rene"

January 25, 1936 - December 10, 2014

Irene L. Cherry (known as Rene) was born January 25, 1936 to Irene Robinson and William Marion Murray in New York, New York. Her father traveled to Sumter, South Carolina to have her raised by her grandmother Belle Murray. By age twelve, Irene moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and was reunited with her father, stepmother, sister and brothers. Irene received her high school education at Murrell Dobbins Vocational Technical High School and her Masters degree plus thirty in Education at Temple University.

An amazing beautiful ambitious woman who married, raised a loving family while a dedicated Cosmetology Instructor at Murrell Dobbins Vocational Technical High School. She touched many hearts and people with her loving caring ways and her soulful delicious cooking. She was always available to friends, family and was a loyal faithful church member.

The Lord in His infinite wisdom deemed it timely on December 10, 2014 to call Irene to eternal rest. Her departure is a deep and personal loss to her family and friends and she will be deeply missed by them all.

Irene leaves to cherish precious memories to: daughters, Robin, Kelly and Karen; son, Kevin; sons-in-law, Sidney and Jack; grandchildren, Sidney, Darrelle, Deora and Kelsie; a host of precious great grandchildren; nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends

“ I had the opportunity of meeting Mrs. Cherry through my friendship with her daughter, Kelly. I knew her as a woman with a beautiful smile and welcoming spirit. Thoughts and prayers are with the family at this most difficult time.

“ Aunt Rene was a true blessing. No one was more family oriented. She was a selfless woman of tremendous strength and beauty. She will be forever the living example of what a woman, wife, sister, aunt and mother should be in life. Love always your nephew, Sheldon
