

Irvin Moore, III

May 27, 1966 - November 20, 2021

Irvin Moore, III was born May 27, 1966 to parents, Irvin Moore, Jr. and Queenie E. Reed Moore in Orlando, Florida. He attended Orange County Public Schools and was active in the band. While in high school, he played both the trombone and was drum major. He graduated from West Orange High School, Class of 1984.

Irvin continued his education and attended Rollins College in Winter Park, Florida where he majored in Accounting. He was very adventurous and enjoyed traveling. It was his love for music that led him into entertainment. Irvin was employed in the Hospitality and Entertainment Industry, at Walt Disney World from 1982 until 1996. He later relocated to Fort Myers, Florida and worked at the Naples Grand Beach Resort from 1996 until his passing.

Irvin loved spending quality time with family and friends. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Irvin was preceded in death by his father, Irvin Moore, Jr. and followed in death by his brother, Gregory Harper days after his passing.

of Mt. Dora, Florida, Nathaniel (Latasha) of Orlando, Florida, and Darryln (Janelle) of Orlando, Florida; Nieces and Nephews: Marquita, Nicole, Genera, Terri, Shania, Acorya, Dasia, Kisha, Kinzy, Daryah, Abbey, Johnathan III, Nathaniel, Jr. Willie, Germaine; Uncles: Abraham (Eddiereatha), Lucios (Derry), and Donald Reed, all of Orlando, Florida and J.C. of Madison, Florida; Aunts: Emma (Scott) and Ida, both of Orlando, Florida, Alice of Altamonte Springs, Florida, and Delois of Albany, Georgia; a Devoted Friend, Dewayne Blazina; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends
