Isaiyah Wright was born on August 23rd, 2004 at Winter Park Memorial to Stacy Hall and Lebert Wright. He grew up in Orlando, FL, attended Ridgewood Elementary School, Meadowbrook Middle School, Evans High School and then transitioned to Workforce Advantage Academy. Isaiyah played football for a local team, and also enjoyed boxing and doing Tiktok challenges with his sisters and friends.

Isaiyah was named after the biblical prophet Isaiah, and was introduced to church as a young boy. He participated in praise dancing for community churches, and was known to encourage his friends to attend church with him. One of his favorite bible verses was Isaiah 40:31 – “But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint”.

Those closest to Isaiyah remember him as honest to a fault, respectful to his elders and always helpful. He lit up any room with his eyes, open smile, jokes and laughter. He was a loving son and brother; he loved his friends and considered them an extension of his family.

Isaiyah tragically died on August 29th, 2023, only six days after his 19th birthday. He leaves to cherish his memories his parents Stacy (mom), Lebert (dad) and Syndy (stepmom); grandparents Clive and Beverly Hall and Clinton Wright; siblings Lacaiya, Denayah, Miracle, Jordan, Jourdan and Jayda, along with aunts, uncles, cousins, relatives and countless friends. May his transition be smooth and may he rest in perfect peace.

“ My Dear Grandson Isaiyah you are greatly missed. I recall the times you would call to accompany me to church and in the next sentence would be “Grandma can you please make me some breakfast?” My answer was yes .” How many friends are coming with you ?” He will answer 2 to 3 . Sometime he will cancel and give me another time to attend during the week and he will fulfill the promise. I had given isaiyah a bible at an early age when he was able to read it. I will check on him for the location of the Bible to see if he was still reading it “ yes grandma I read it “ he replied . One day he gave me a surprised and said “ grandma I read my bible on my bible app on my phone and also pray “ “sometimes” I will hear him discussing the Bible with his friends on there level stating his mom. One of his favorite bible verses was “ no weapon form against me will prosper” one evening while I was sitting in the car at his home one of isaiyah close friends came up to me greeted me and said “ grandma I believe isaiyah is in heaven isaiyah had some Jesus in him and I seen some changes in him for the better over a time period” that was reassuring and comforting to me, it is my hope that in his last moments the Holy Sprit gave him strength to cry out to the lord before his last breath, so to be at peace with the lord. Isaiyah was a rose pluck from the garden. His time was completed here on earth so he was called home to his eternal rest . I won't have isaiyah to vacuum out my car anymore but I thank god for the times we spent together. And that one day I will see him again in heaven. Rest in peace my dearest grandson GOD is a mighty and just GOD. His mercies never fail.

“ When my brother first introduced Isaiyah to me its because he said if you need anything to do around the house Isaiyah is good at it. Ever since then 3years ago Isaiyah would do anything I ask of him he was good at everything,painting,building,putting things together, take directions endless more. He is such a respectful kid. He always calling me Ma this MA that never by my name..I would talk to him he would listen and say yes Ma many of days I would pick him up and make sure he go to School and we would talk. Omg when I hear the news it broke my heart I still can't believe it. Isaiyah I am gonna truly miss you that innocent smile that you have I am gonna miss you. YOU GONE WAY TOO SOON REST IN PARIDISE Isaiyah...WE MISS YOU

“ When I met Zay, I was trying to figure out why he was always so loud coming in my house. Once he got comfortable with me, he began to love me as his second mom. I always gave him advice and always always told him to pray and be good. I will miss his goofy self and saying ma, I'm hungry or can I get a plate of what you cooked. I may not have birth you, but I treated as my own. I love. Stacy I love you and will always be here for you. May God continue wrap his lovely arms around...
