

Jacquelyn J. Smith

March 10, 1951 - October 29, 2018

The story of Jackie's life began March 10, 1951 with her birth to Harry and Gertrude Taylor. Jackie as she was lovingly called was the fifth child born to this union. Jackie's early education began at Fredrick Douglass Elementary School attending grades one through six. After completing elementary school she entered Phyllis Wheatley Junior High and High School where she graduated in 1969. Jackie went on to attend Florida A&M University earning a B.A. degree in Home Economics. After graduation, Jackie taught briefly, then found employment with Homes in Partnership. During her 34 year career, Jackie counseled and assisted over 3,000 families to become homeowners through the USDA low to moderate income program. Jackie worked tirelessly and encouraged many young people to become first time home buyers. Jackie also worked tirelessly in her community serving as president of the Zellwood Improvement Project, being instrumental in many projects to improve the playground, baseball court, after school and summer programs. Jackie also served on the Florida Non -Profit Housing Board and the Orange County Community Action Board.

Jackie was preceded in death by her parents, Mr. Harry and Mrs. Gertrude Taylor, Brothers: Harry Taylor Jr, Lewis Jerome Taylor, Larry Lucious Taylor and James Gregory Taylor, one brother-in-law: Hagel Smith Nassau, Bahamas.

One of the most important events in Jackie's life took place March 8, 1976 when she met and married the love of her life Mr. Wendell Smith, Sr. To this 42 year union they had two sons, Pervis Craig Taylor Zellwood, Florida and Wendell Smith Jr. (Jameshia) Eustis, Florida; Three stepdaughters, Ms. Monique Smith, Ms. Bridgette Smith Rahming, Ms. Nicole Smith, all of Nassau, Bahamas; Grandchildren, Jamal Smith, Krishana Taylor, Tashara M.
