

Jamall Donte Bright, Sr.

May 14, 1987 - October 3, 2022

Jamall D. Bright, Sr, was born May 14, 1987, in Orlando, FL to Rosa Bright and the late John Bright. He attended Maynard Evans High School where he was a student athlete excelling in football and wrestling. He received his High School Diploma in 2005 and later studied Computer Science at Santa Fee Community College in Gainesville, FL.

Jamall was an adventurous soul and relocated to Atlanta, GA in 2012 where he blazed his own path. From an early age, Jamall showed an interest in technology and innovation and was known to break things down just to reassemble them for sport. This childhood interest was the catalyst for the work he performed throughout his young career in Information Technology and conveyor system design and operations.

Everyone that knew Jamall, acknowledged, and celebrated him as a devoted son to his mother and a doting father. He was also known for his charismatic personality, charming demeanor, beautiful smile, love of travel and passion for sneakers.

The Lord called our beloved Jamall to his eternal resting place on Monday, October 3, 2022. His departure is a deep and personal loss to his family and friends, and he will be greatly missed by them all.

While Jamall left us far too soon, his impact on the hearts and lives of others will never fade. He will forever be remembered as Daddy, Mommy's Bigman, beloved brother, Uncle Bigman, wonderful nephew, cousin, loyal friend, and dearest companion.

Jamall was proceeded in death by his father: John Bright; grandparents: Wadie Bright, Jr, Marilyn & Albert McNeal, and Hayward & Marva Price. He leaves to mourn his grandmother: Leartis Bright; loving mother: Rosa Bright; children: Jamall Bright, Jr and Lennox Davis; siblings: Marilyn Bright, Phinecia Bright and Frederick Vernon Jr; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
